CHAIRMAN'S WELCOME

THE AUSTRALIAN TURF CLUB AT OUR HOME HERE
IN THIS GLOBAL CITY OF SYDNEY WELCOMES
ALL MEDIA TO ONE OF THE WORLD'S BEST
THOROUGHBRED RACING CARNIVALS.

The six-week Sydney Autumn Racing Carnival at Rosehill Gardens and Royal Randwick features a suite of some of the most famous and highest rated races in international racing.

From the iconic Longines Golden Slipper Stakes and Carnival at Rosehill Gardens, to Australia's highest rated race for the past three years in the Longines Queen Elizabeth Stakes at Royal Randwick, the eyes of the racing world focus on Sydney this March and April.

With Australia's best horses, jockeys and trainers, the Sydney Autumn Racing Carnival is attracting competitors from the Northern Hemisphere, including some of the biggest stables in the UK and Japan, along with the great strength of New Zealand's renowned racing industry.

More than $37 million in prizemoney and trophies, including 18 Group 1 races amongst 48 Group or Listed events, will be won this Autumn.

Week in and week out you will be the witness to millions of people across Australia and beyond as the stories of these horses and their connections take centre stage.

Added to this great action on the track comes a host of fashion, food and entertainment that makes the Sydney Autumn Racing Carnival one of Australia's premier social, sporting and entertainment destinations.

We are thrilled this year to host Sydney's first Pink Raceday on Chandon Ladies Day at Rosehill Gardens, featuring the Pink Fashion Lunch supporting the McGrath Foundation. We encourage all racegoers to wear a touch of pink on this day.

Music legend Jon Stevens will rock Longines Golden Slipper Day as Western Sydney comes together for one of its biggest events of the year, while Hot Dub Time Machine features on The Championships Day 2 - Longines Queen Elizabeth Stakes Day.

At Rosehill Gardens we re-introduce the Golden Palms, and at Royal Randwick, a new French-inspired space Le Petit Pony Club.

Racegoers will have the opportunity to shine at the Fashion Chute and the prestigious Longines Prize for Elegance competitions across both tracks.

And further into this guide you will see a host of corporate hospitality spaces, Members Reserve areas and a choice of general admission precincts to suit all tastes for the ultimate raceday experience.

We look forward to seeing you trackside.

COOLMORE CLASSIC

$600,000

GROUP 1 (1500M)

QUALITY HANDICAP FILLIES & MARES

Dixie Blossoms 2019. Bradley Photographers.

Fillies and mares did not have Group 1 races specifically for them until the Coolmore Classic was awarded the ultimate status in 1984.

Top class horses Emancipation, Bounding Away, Skating, Flitter, Tuesday Joy, Typhoon Tracy and Daysee Doom have all taken out the Coolmore Classic.

But the best is arguably Sunline who carried the maximum 60kg in 2000 and 2002.

Renowned trainers of mares have dominated including Newcastle's Max Lees with five.

Last year trainer Ron Quinton continued a remarkable run, winning his fourth in eight years with Dixie Blossoms.

Kiamichi 2019. Bradley Photographers.

The world's richest race for two-year-old thoroughbreds is the $3.5 million Longines Golden Slipper, and Rosehill Gardens has provided some amazing moments over more than six decades.

Still the race that shapes the Australian racing and breeding industry like no other, its history began with the great Todman. Star Kingdom was his father and he'd sire the first five winners of Sydney's iconic race.

Another family to line the records is the legendary trainer TJ Smith. Tommy trained a record six winners, a feat only matched by his own daughter Gai Waterhouse, with her own six victories.

Grand sprinters Vain, Manikato, Luskin Star and Pierro have triumphed. Fillies have taken out the past three editions, including last year Kiamichi for Godolphin.

GROUP 1 (1500M)
WFA 3YO&UP

Winx 2019. Bradley Photographers.

The Agency George Ryder Stakes is not only one of Australia's best races but consistently rates amongst the highest in the world.

It has a history as a platform to further Group 1 glory over a range of distances, from the 1200m of the TJ Smith Stakes, to The Star Doncaster Mile or even the 2000m of the Longines Queen Elizabeth Stakes.

Champions to have won include Manikato, Emancipation, Campaign King, Schillaci, Lonhro, Weekend Hussler and Pierro to name a few. International winners Gordon Lord Byron and Real Impact feature in recent years.

But no other winner has reigned like Winx – the mighty mare winning the past four years before her retirement.

WFA 3YO&UP

Avilius 2019. Bradley Photographers.

As one of five Group 1s on Longines Golden Slipper Day, the Ranvet Stakes often provides its own piece of racing theatre.

Through the years this race has involved protests, big upsets and revered clashes.

The TAB Chipping Norton Stakes along with the Australian Cup down south have proven an excellent guide to the Ranvet Stakes over many years as Australia's best WFA gallopers come together over the 2000m.

Gai Waterhouse's domination of the race included five wins in six years in the mid to late 2000s. Dual winners include Sky High, Gunsynd, Marceau, Beau Zam, Tie The Knot and Theseo. Jockey Kerrin McEvoy has won three of the past four including Avilius for Godolphin in 2019.

THE GALAXY

$700,000
GROUP 1 (1100M)
HANDICAP 3YO&UP

The Group 1 Galaxy has found its place as Rosehill Gardens' premier open-age handicap sprint of the Longines Golden Slipper Carnival. It has been won by some star young sprinters of the past including the Newcastle flyer Luskin Star, the grand grey Schillaci and the flying Snippets.

Interestingly in 1997, John Hawkes trained Accomplice to win. The colt was by Canny Lad out of With Me and those two horses also ran the quinella in the 1990 Longines Golden Slipper.

Last year Nature Strip fulfilled his enormous potential, winning his first of several Group 1s.

- » Schillaci won the 1992 Lightning Stakes, Oakleigh Plate, Newmarket Hcp, lost the Canterbury Stakes on protest and then won The Galaxy.

- » It was a nose decision in 2019. Nature Strip would win the G1 Moir Stakes and G1 VRC Sprint Classic the following Spring. Pierata took out a G1 All Aged Stakes and then G2 Shorts plus the Redzel Stakes. But no surprise they were close together in The Everest just behind the placings.

GROUP 1 (2000M)
SET WEIGHTS 3YO

The Autumn Sun 2019. Bradley Photographers.

The Group 1 Sky Racing Rosehill Guineas is the second leg of the Triple Crown for three-year-olds.

Run over the 2000m, it begins to bring out the staying types who will also later go on to the classic Australian Derby.

Since 1992, the Guineas-Derby double has been achieved on seven occasions.

Legends of the turf such as Phar Lap, Ajax, Hydrogen, Tulloch, Kingston Town, Strawberry Road, Octagonal and Tie The Knot have won the Rosehill Guineas.

Last year saw one of the most dominant colts in decades in the Autumn Sun taking out the race for master trainer Chris Waller and jockey Kerrin McEvoy.

GROUP 1 (2400M)
WFA 3YO&UP

Avilius 2019. Bradley Photographers.

Australia has only one Group 1 2400m race run over Weight for Age and that is the Kia Tancred Stakes at Rosehill Gardens.

The race has seen some incredible efforts – huge margins by Beau Zam and Might And Power, the last gasp win of Octagonal and Makybe Diva's brilliant last half mile to swamp Grand Armee. Also recall Freemason and Northerly going stride to stride from about 1800m out from the post, to be separated by a nose.

Last year it would be Avilius doing the Ranvet-Tancred double with an emphatic victory for jockey James McDonald.

THE STAR CHAMPIONSHIPS DAY 1

» 4 APR

ROYAL RANDWICK FEATURES THE BEST HORSES IN THE COUNTRY FOR WHAT HAS QUICKLY BECOME ONE OF SYDNEY'S BIGGEST DAYS OF SPORT AND ENTERTAINMENT.

Brutal 2019. Paul McMillan.

One of the most celebrated races on the Australian turf is the Group 1 $3 million The Star Doncaster Mile, launched from the world-famous Royal Randwick 1600m point.

Autumn's biggest sprint the TJ Smith Stakes (run over The Everest course), the blue riband for the 3YOs in the Australian Derby and the youngsters in the Inglis Sires' combine for a world-class day of racing.

NSW country connections take their place on the biggest stage with the final of the Newhaven Park Country Championships.

As a nod to traditions, racegoers are encouraged to dress in black and white at this most elegant of racedays and visit the Fashion Chute.

A major headline entertainment act will be announced soon to play after the last race.

THE STAR DONCASTER MILE

$3,000,000
GROUP 1 (1600M)
HANDICAP 3YO&UP

Royal Randwick is world-famous for its 1600m start – none more so than for the running of The Star Doncaster Mile.

Legends have been made carrying big weights in this prestigious handicap. From Gunsynd, through to the mares Sunline and Winx, The Star Doncaster Mile has consistently been won by some of the all-time greats.

One of the greatest of all was crowd-favourite Super Impose who would come from last on the turn to win consecutive The Star Doncaster Miles.

The incomparable Winx won in 2016 but not many winners have been as popular as Happy Clapper in 2018.

TJ SMITH STAKES

$2,500,000
GROUP 1 (1200M)
WFA

Despite its relatively short history, the TJ Smith Stakes at Royal Randwick has become Australia's premier Autumn sprint, Australia's pre-eminent sprinter of the year has regularly come out on top.

The incredibly versatile Mahogany won the initial running and it didn't take long to obtain Group 1 status.

All-time great Black Caviar ended her career in this race in 2013, following her victory in 2011 before overseas glory.

It's hard to believe she could be outdone but Chautauqua did as much. The grey won it three times in a row in the same manner – back last, looking hopeless and then swamping them late.

2019 saw Santa Ana Lane confirm its standing as one of the world's best sprinters with a stunning win.

- » Only 5 times in the last 20 years has the winner scored in their lead up race.
- » Black Caviar ended her staggering unbeaten 25 start career winning the 2013 TJ Smith. Amazingly, six years later, Winx would end her career on the same day (13 April).
- » In 2016 Chautauqua took on Hong Kong's Chairman's Sprint Prize at Sha Tin after winning at Randwick and he won both races coming from last.
- » Santa Ana Lane's 2019 win was his 5th at G1 level but strangely, at $7.50, that was still the shortest SP in those victories.

ATC AUSTRALIAN DERBY

$2,000,000
GROUP 1 (2400M)
SET WEIGHTS 3YO

The Australian Derby is clearly the strongest in this country, one of the showpieces at Royal Randwick in the Sydney autumn. There have been some celebrated clashes – none more famous in recent decades as in 1996 when Octagonal ground down Saintly, Filante and Nothin' Leica Dane. Those horses would win a plethora of Group 1 races afterwards.

Many other greats have taken out the blue riband including legends Phar Lap, Tulloch and Kingston Town. Add those to Dulcify, Strawberry Road, Bonecrusher and Beau Zam.

The kiwis have had the running in recent years with Nom Du Jeu, It's A Dundee, Mongolian Khan, Tavago and Jon Snow.

Last year Angel Of Truth was a superior stayer for top jockey Corey Brown and trainer Gwenda Markwell.

INGLIS SIRE'S'

$1,000,000
GROUP 1 (1400M)
SET WEIGHTS 2YO

The second leg of the Triple Crown for two-year-olds is run over the 1400m and in times past was regularly a natural progression for Longines Golden Slipper winners and runners.

But since The Championships and a further prizemoney rise, along with a two week break, the Longines Golden Slipper hasn't been the automatic form guide.

Pierro was the last Slipper winner to also take the Inglis Sires', before completing the Triple Crown.

Last year Godolphin's Microphone proved a resilient winner, giving jockey Hugh Bowman his third victory in the past five years.

LONGINES QUEEN ELIZABETH STAKES

$4,000,000
GROUP 1 (2000M)
WFA 3YO&UP

The richest race of The Championships is the $4 million Longines Queen Elizabeth Stakes, a crowning highlight of Sydney Autumn Racing at Royal Randwick.

Still one of the richest turf races in the world, it is one of the rare races on the Australian calendar to feature the great champions in history.

In just the last 30 years there has been Rough Habit, Jeune, Might And Power, Lonhro, Grand Armee, More Joyous and It's A Dundee.

But Winx has taken the race to a new level. Her unforgettable farewell victory in last year's race – her third in succession – will forever be one of the greatest moments in Australian sporting history.

SCHWEPPES SYDNEY CUP

$2,000,000
GROUP 1 (3200M)
HANDICAP 3YO&UP

The Schweppes Sydney Cup has had a recent refocus to promote the staying breed in Australia, with an increase in prizemoney, an international winner in 2017 and reprogramming of pathway races leading up to the famous two miles.

It is designed to attract stayers from around the world and race in Australian racing conditions, competing against local talent from locally and New Zealand.

Grand stayers of the past strode the Sydney Cup stage with The Barb, Carbine, Galilee and Makybe Diva. Three year olds such as Kingston Town and Tie The Knot showed up their older rivals.

In most recent years, Sydney's champion trainer Chris Waller has won four of the past nine Cups.

AUSTRALIAN OAKS

$1,000,000
GROUP 1 (2000M)
SET WEIGHTS 3YO FILLIES

The Australian Oaks is the fillies chance to stretch to the 2400m in search of a Group 1 classic success.

Some of the best fillies of their generation over past decades including Flight, Wenona Girl, Light Fingers, Leilani, Surround, Bounding Away and Research have taken the Oaks at Royal Randwick.

Prior to her incredible accomplishments, the Australian Oaks was the last race Winx lost when ridden by Joao Moreira.

It is also another race the kiwi gallopers have thrived in. Last year Verry Elleegant confirmed her staying talent for star Kiwi-born jockey James McDonald.

COOLMORE LEGACY STAKES

$1,000,000

GROUP 1 (1600M)

WFA 3YO&UP FILLIES & MARES

The Coolmore Legacy Stakes has been revamped as a mile Group 1 WFA race for fillies and mares at Royal Randwick during The Championships.

Changing the conditions has made it a strong point of difference to the Coolmore Classic with the mile a solid test for all the fillies and mares.

Gai Waterhouse has a strong record which comes as no surprise, especially now it is over her signature Royal Randwick mile.

Mares have dominated the race until fillies Foxplay in 2017 and Alizee in 2018. Last year Kenedna opened her Group 1 account under new trainers Ciaran Maher and David Eustace.

SCHWEPPES ALL AGED STAKES

The final WFA event of Sydney Autumn Racing has become one of the highest-rating races in Australia.

Now worth $600,000 over 1400m, the Group 1 has become a major target to end the three weeks at Royal Randwick.

Recent Schweppes All Aged Stakes winners since the race switched back to 1400m in 2004 include Private Steer, Racing To Win, Hot Danish and Hay List.

Youngsters such as Atlantic Jewel and All Too Hard have added to its growing influence.

Last year Pierata confirmed his status as one of nation's best sprinters with his first Group 1.

MOËT & CHANDON CHAMPAGNE STAKES

$500,000
GROUP 1 (1600m)
SET WEIGHTS 2YO

The final leg of the juvenile Triple Crown sees the two-year-olds step up to the 1600m, many after a steady campaign out of the sprint events including the Longines Golden Slipper and Inglis Sires.

Since the turn of the century, it has been trainer Gai Waterhouse who has achieved the Triple Crown – Pierro in 2012 and Dance Hero in 2005 – and agonizing close in 2008 with Sebring.

The Inglis Sires' is generally the best guide to this race after the pure sprinters have started to make way for the 1400m and beyond juveniles.

The last two editions were a perfect example of a horse needing the mile – with Seabrook in 2018 and Castelvechio in 2019 coming into their own up the testing Royal Randwick straight.

HORSES TO WATCH

2YOs

DAME GISELLE

2YO Filly (I Am Invincible x Ballet Society)

Trainers

Peter & Paul Snowden

The well-bred Snowden filly's dominant win in the Golden Gift suggests she's a big player in the juvenile races including the Longines Golden Slipper and the two year old triple crown. The form from the Gift looks strong and given her breeding, Dame Giselle may get up to a mile which options up her Autumn options.

KING'S LEGACY

2YO Colt (Redoute's Choice x Breakfast In Bed)

Trainers

Peter & Paul Snowden

While beaten in the Magic Millions, you had to like the way this colt finished off on the Gold Coast. King's Legacy gives every indication he will more attuned to the Inglis Sires and Moët & Chandon Champagne and just trust this stable to have him peaking come The Star Championships.

SEE YOU SOON

2YO Filly (Siyouni x Soneva)

Trainer

Jean Dubois

Having suggested Dame Giselle is a Longines Golden Slipper contender, you have to include the horse who has her form intertwined. Jean Dubois' youngster came from behind her to win on debut and then charged late into second at Rosehill Garden. Watch for her to peak on the biggest of days.

3YOs

CASTELVECCHIO

3YO Colt (Dundeel x St. Therese)

Trainer

Richard Litt

No list of Sydney Autumn Racing Carnival contenders would be complete without the first Australian horse home in the Cox Plate. Bred to be a mile and a half type, he may just be aimed more at the Randwick and Sky Racing Active Rosehill Guineas races before the Longines Queen Elizabeth Stakes. His strength late is his greatest asset.

DRAGON LEAP

3YO Gelding (Pierro x Pontiana)

Trainers

Lance O'Sullivan & Andrew Scott

After doing a few things wrong before Christmas, this Kiwi had the blinkers on in the Auckland Guineas and was excellent late. He looked like a stayer and the Pierros are best over more ground. The Avondale Guineas win means the NZ Derby is the first target then to Sydney for the Australian Derby, so watch for him at Royal Randwick.

FUNSTAR

3YO Filly (Adelaide x Starspangled)

Trainer

Chris Waller

Funstar has started her career in exciting fashion. The Flight Stakes win showed both her versatility and skill in holding off another nice filly in Probabeel. Initial thoughts were just to take on her own sex in the Sydney Autumn but if she was completely dominant the boys could also be in for a shake in the Australian Derby.

LIBERTINI

3YO Filly (I Am Invincible x Aloha)

Trainer: Anthony Cummings

Having shown how good she was in the Spring, it must have been tempting to tackle more but the let up into the Coolmore Stud Stakes only allowed her to run another cracking effort fresh. It's hard to know if she is purely a sprinter or yet better out to the mile but her brilliance has been a highlight so far. Perhaps needs to be on top of the ground to best show that off.

MISSILE MANTRA

3YO Filly (Smart Missile x Wecansay Mak)

Trainers

Peter & Paul Snowden

This filly might be the forgotten one among an outstanding group of 3yos this season. Beaten a nose in the Thousand Guineas, she was the one attacking the line better than the rest. By the time we get to races such as the Vinery Stud Stakes, her dash could be critical. Should only get better with more distance and experience.

PANCHO

3YO Gelding (Dissident x Novel Dancer)

Trainer

Chris Waller

Another who should be a big improver come the Autumn. This gelding really stood up once he got to a mile plus. Powering late in the Bondi Stakes, he went to Flemington on Oaks day and rattled down the middle to draw away late. In that he beat another lovely young stayer in Russian Camelot.

SHADOW HERO

3YO Gelding (Pierro x Sookie)

Trainer

Mark Newnham

Such a promising campaign in the Spring ended by not handling the very wet track on Derby Day. His prior form beating Castelvechio in the Moët & Chanson Spring Champion Stakes showed how good he is. He resembles a stayer with his length of stride and will stake a claim in all the major 3yo Autumn features.

TWO ILLICIT

3YO Filly (Jimmy Choux x Gemini)

Trainers

Roger James & Robert Wellwood

Still effectively in her first preparation, the Kiwis have another top drawer stayer in the making. She had form around the better ones of her generation in NZ before the New Year and then got to the Waikato Guineas where she destroyed a last start G1 winner by over 7L. Will be a big contender for the Oaks if she crosses the Tasman.

4YOs

BRUTAL

4YO Horse (O'Reilly x Alberton Princess)

Trainers

Michael, Wayne & John Hawkes

The Star Doncaster winner was fantastic when he resumed in the Premiere Stakes beating Everest contenders but didn't go toward the biggest Spring prize. Given plenty of time to prepare for this carnival, the Schweppes All Aged Stakes at the end of it is a nice target race before more potential races internationally.

KOLDING

4YO Gelding (Ocean Park x Magic Star)

Trainer

Chris Waller

Winning one of the big miles usually is the highlight of any carnival but for Kolding, he backed up his TAB Epsom triumph with a marvellous victory in the inaugural Iron Jack Golden Eagle. He will be a contender in any race he contests and could even attempt the famous Royal Randwick mile double in The Star Doncaster.

ROCK

4YO Gelding (Pierro x Subtitle)

Trainers

Michael, Wayne & John Hawkes

There was significant improvement in the Spring as he tasted stakes success at Newcastle and then worked home bravely in the TAB Epsom. He'll either be a lightweight The Star Doncaster hope or pick off some of the races just off the top level but from this astute stable will be competitive in anything.

SHARED AMBITION

4YO Gelding (Born To Sea x Almansa)

Trainer

Chris Waller

You had to be looking forward when seeing what this import did at the end of his first racing season in Australia. Now that he has had time to acclimatise and enjoy that spell, expect him to be measuring up in the staying contests. He will need ground in time as we saw first up when outsprinted but staying on.

Dame Giselle 2019. Bradley Photographers.

5YOs+

CASCADIAN

5YO Gelding (New Approach x Falls Of Lora)

Trainer

James Cummings

Godolphin has been sending some of their European up and comers Down Under for a few years now and this ex-Andre Fabre gelding is ready to take a leap. His third in the Cantala on Derby Day was an unlucky effort coming from near last. He will build into this preparation with a view to peaking in The Star Doncaster.

MASTER OF WINE

5YO Gelding (Maxios x Magma)

Trainers

Michael, Wayne & John Hawkes

It is not hard to see that patience could work wonders with this young stayer. Once he was fit and got over a trip in Spring, he was powerful – admittedly away from the big league. Now furnishing into himself, you'd think he'll attack some strong Autumn races over a journey, ready to unleash that turn of foot.

TE AKAU SHARK

5YO Gelding (Rip Van Winkle x Bak Da Chief)

Trainer

Jamie Richards

In what could be a New Zealand invasion, their very best could best be 'the Shark'. He didn't win a race in the Spring but won many admirers through his TAB Epsom and Cox Plate efforts. He has ticked off that G1 marker with a devastating finish in the Waikato Sprint, making up 6L in the home straight. He plots the Winx path to the Longines Queen Elizabeth Stakes.

Fun Star 2019. Bradley Photographers.

JOCKEYS & TRAINERS TO WATCH

JOCKEYS

BRENTON AVDULLA

After beginning his riding career in Victoria, Brenton Avdulla has been at the forefront of the Sydney riding ranks following his move north around a decade ago. Estijaab provided his biggest win in the 2018 Longines Golden Slipper and then more good results at home produced recognition from overseas with a stint in Japan last year.

DAMIAN LANE

The boy from WA could not have dreamt of how well the last twelve months have gone. In 2019 he won the Longines Golden Slipper on Kiamichi before global recognition in the Takarazuka Kinen in Japan. He subsequently scored on Japanese stars Mer De Glace in the Caulfield Cup and Lys Gracieux in the Cox Plate.

TOMMY BERRY

Riding high in the Premiership battle, Tommy Berry has got himself attached to some very nice Autumn prospects and crowd favourites. Standout could be just that, Pierata and Happy Clapper will excite the fans and no doubt he'll have a top Longines Golden Slipper mount – a race he has won twice before. He is as popular with his peers as he is with the public.

JAMES McDONALD

James McDonald has stamped his time back in the saddle with a great number of big race victories. He won the 18/19 Sydney Premiership with 104 wins becoming the first rider to break the century since Darren Beadman over a decade before. Funstar, Nature Strip and Verry Elleegant are among just a few of his big race chances.

GLEN BOSS

Few jockeys have CVs as long and distinguished as Glen Boss. Few also can claim to be the regular rider of one of the all-time greats, steering Makybe Diva to her three Melbourne Cups. Along with a Golden Slipper, Boss has won seven Doncaster Miles, and an Everest and Golden Eagle in the Spring.

KERRIN McEVOY

Now one of the experienced members of the room, McEvoy came to prominence on Brew in the 2000 Melbourne Cup, which in turn led to his role in Europe as Frankie Dettori's understudy for Godolphin. Once back home he has kept creating history with two more Melbourne Cups and now famous wins on Redzel in the first two runnings of The Everest at Royal Randwick.

HUGH BOWMAN

The man from Dunedoo is unlikely to find another great one as his champion Winx. Bowman rode the legend for all her biggest moments. Career successes have not just been confined to these shores with highlights in Hong Kong and Japan on top of his early learning in the UK – something which guided and formulated his style.

DAMIEN OLIVER

Charging towards the most Group 1 wins in Australia, Damien Oliver still commands due acknowledgment for his level of skill over more than 30 years at the top of the tree. Victoria Derby and Oaks winners over the last Flemington carnival, but perhaps one of the best references to his ability is he's as good a rider of a stayer as he is a sprinter.

TIM CLARK

Tim Clark has come of age as a rider over the last couple of years. Now ensconced in the Top 5 on the Sydney Premiership, he is one of the best front-running jockeys in the business. That sense of timing and knowing how fast he is travelling is a real skill and makes him a force to be reckoned with in any race.

NASH RAWILLER

After being one of the premier riders in Sydney for a long period of time, Nash Rawiller ventured to Hong Kong before returning home in the past 12 months. He has taken little time in re-establishing himself as one of the top hoops. Previously associated with some super talents like Pierro, Elvstroem and More Joyous, he is best known for his strength.

TRAINERS

BJORN BAKER

The last racing season was a good one for Bjorn Baker and his team. Samadoubt brought success at the top level when he won the Winx Stakes. But Baker has built on that with depth in the stable to be sitting inside the top five of the Sydney Trainer's Premiership and even further up the statewide list.

JAMES CUMMINGS

Being in charge of a massive amount of horseflesh at Godolphin has provided James Cummings with a great opportunity to show his diversity. The 2018/19 season saw him create a national record for blacktype winners and he secured his own first 'big four' success when Kiamichi led all the way in the Longines Golden Slipper. This season already has seen him produce some elite 3YO talent via the likes of Bivouac and Flit.

MICHAEL, WAYNE & JOHN HAWKES

Hawkes Racing continues to have success each and every season. Since they became an entity under this banner in 2008, there have been many triumphs at the elite level. Two Longines Golden Slipper victories are among the many highlights. Their latest star Exceedance could well be at the very top of what is a stellar group of three year olds.

DAVID & BEN HAYES & TOM DABERNIG

While there are changes coming soon to this combination, Lindsay Park itself still remains a major player on the Australian racing scene. From Colin Hayes in the beginning, through David's time at the helm then along with nephew Tom Dabernig and finally son Ben, the organisation knows how to train a winner.

KRIS LEES

Kris Lees has established his own identity given his father Max's outstanding record as a trainer in Newcastle. The family affiliation with the fillies and mares is renowned and it is no surprise Kris' best so far have been quality 3YO Samantha Miss and the Queen Elizabeth winner Lucia Valentina. Lees has a powerful team across all sex and age groups for the Autumn.

CIARON MAHER & DAVID EUSTACE

When you see the depth of talent in the Ciaron Maher and David Eustace yard, it will not be long before they are winning more of the biggest races around Australia. They came together only in the last few seasons but already have multiple G1s. Although they have a versatile team, it is their bulging group of quality youngsters that sets them up for seasons to come.

TONY & CALVIN McEVOY

Now training together, Tony and son Calvin got things rolling when Hey Doc made it back into the big league with his dominant Winterbottom Stakes victory in Perth. That came off the back of Tony's best season since he finished as part of Lindsay Park. Sunlight, Despatch and Oohood were all effective on the highest stage and more is expected this Autumn.

MARK NEWNHAM

Mark Newnham has only been training on his own for around five seasons but already has made a big impact. Three G1 victories have him heading into this Autumn with the prospect of more to come. Shadow Hero appears a horse that he can take to the top in the staying ranks but you can bet it won't be his last.

PETER & PAUL SNOWDEN

When you have trained the winner of the first two Everests, and everything that went along with Redzel's historic achievement, it puts a stable at the very top of Australian racing. From formative years in Scone and then through Crown Lodge, Peter is another to now enjoy working with family through son Paul. The stable is renowned for its ability with youngsters, and in particular sprinters.

CHRIS WALLER

As the winner of nine Sydney premierships, Chris Waller's amazing achievements are perhaps forever to be best linked with the legendary Winx. She was his 100th G1 in the Longines Queen Elizabeth Stakes, one of four G1s on one day around the country. Then to top that off he landed his first Everest with Yes Yes Yes and the first edition of the Golden Eagle with Kolding.

GAI WATERHOUSE & ADRIAN BOTT

Racing in Sydney is synonymous with the iconic Tulloch Lodge. The famous bone and muscle formula, passed on from the great TJ Smith, regularly kicks in during the Sydney Autumn Racing Carnival. Since they became a partnership, Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott have had a lot of big race satisfaction with the fillies and mares such as Global Glamour, Pinot, English and Prompt Response.

TIPS & TRICKS: DRESSING FOR THE SYDNEY AUTUMN CARNIVAL

JESS PECORARO
Australian Turf Club
Official Stylist

Leading Sydney based stylist Jess Pecoraro shares her hidden gems for dressing for the 2020 Autumn Racing Carnival.

Jess has shared her top tips to make sure you are looking your best trackside:

FELT HEADWEAR is a must for autumn, this season anything goes from lace oversized bows, veils and of course traditional hats with a modern twist.

BOOTS are a must-have this season to offset the floaty femininity and add an edge to your raceday attire.

EMBRACE AUTUMN-ESQUE LAYERING by pairing a blouse under a dress to achieve a multi dimensional look, coupled with a pussy bow.

HOSIERY is a great way to keep warm during the colder days, while also adding an extra element to an outfit.

OPT FOR A STYLISH AND COMFORTABLE SUIT paired back with pops of burgundy and burnt orange to incorporate Autumn tones.

ADOPT DEEP TEXTURES in fabrics, bags and headpieces which will help elevate all looks especially in darker hues.

FASHION CHUTE

Fashion and horseracing go hand in hand, and there's no better place to show off your racewear style than at the Fashion Chute.

Returning again across two days, racegoers have the opportunity to strike a pose and express their individual style in a custom-built photography studio at Rosehill Gardens and Royal Randwick

Judges will be looking for sophistication, individuality and creativity as key components to taking home the most coveted award off the track.

If you don't wish to enter the digital competition, drop in to the Fashion Chute anyway and have fun with friends by having your photo professionally taken.

COMPETITION & CATEGORIES

The competition will be open to Ladies on Chandon Ladies Day, Saturday 14 March at Rosehill Gardens while both Ladies and Men will have the opportunity to compete for the impressive prize pool on Day 1 of The Star Championships, Saturday 4 April at Royal Randwick.

TRACKSIDE BEAUTY TIPS

LIPS Autumn Racing fashion welcomes a bold lip. Use your fingertip to press in lipstick, which acts as a stain with great staying power. Finish with a liner to define lip edges and a touch of gloss in the centre to create a reflective pout.

Top tip; A lip liner one shade deeper than your lip colour will add definition and shape to your lips

HAIR Sleek and chic hair styles are my picks for Autumn Racing. Use oils, hydrating lotions and dry wax to create healthy, elegant hair. Avoid too much hairspray and 'fixed' hair styles, as they don't always look as fresh a few hours into the day.

Top Tip; Less is more with hair, simple styles work better for long days at the races

SKIN Hydration is key as it guarantees makeup looking fresher for longer - it's better to over prep the skin, than under prep.

Top Tip Dab a few drops of a face oil onto the cheekbones before applying foundation. It gives an all-day natural glow on an area that reflects light the most.

EYES Autumn Racing is all about lashes and brows, which can really lift the face once defined. Play with textures and contrast from your outfit.

Top Tip instead of traditional black liner, try navy, berry, chocolate or even granite to really make your eye colour pop.
