CHAIRMAN'S WELCOME

It is a great pleasure to welcome and present the Australian Turf Club's Everest Carnival, in conjunction with Racing NSW, as we continue to build and promote the Sydney Spring as one of world racing's biggest events.

From 16 September through to 7 November, Royal Randwick and Rosehill Gardens host world-class racing and entertainment across our global city with 28 Group and Blacktype races and more than $41 million in prizemoney.

The $15 million TAB Everest at Royal Randwick on 17 October and the second running of the $7.5 million Iron Jack Golden Eagle at Rosehill Gardens are game changers in Australian racing.

Their innovation in just a few short years has been recognised across international jurisdictions and brought new eyes through media outlets to our Club's racing.

These two races plus the traditional Spring highlights of The TAB Epsom, Heineken Metropolitan, Darley Princess Series and the 3YO Classic De Bortoli Wines Golden Rose Stakes have all helped to make the Sydney Spring a destination for not only visiting horses and connections from New Zealand but racing fans and tourists across Australia.

Further, they have helped to extend the Sydney Spring program well into November at this traditional and popular time for Australian racing.

Of course, 2020 has been a challenging year through the major disruption of COVID-19 and we will race in front of reduced crowds at our racecourses for the safety and health of all concerned.

This makes your role in covering our racing even more important to the sport – along with all the colour and entertainment that goes with it.

Whilst our numbers on course will be reduced, the Australian Turf Club has created new ways for people to be a part of the fun.

Our new Spring Fashion Stakes digital competition is open Australia-wide with a male and female winner selected by an expert panel of judges across key racedays.

Entrants can send their best photo or video and upload to theraces.com.au/stylestakes to be in the running to win thousands of dollars in prizes.

A social highlight is the Everest Carnival Fashion Lunch on TAB Epsom Day at Royal Randwick.

The event will feature a three-course menu by ATC Guest Chef Dany Karam of Black Bar & Grill, the Everest Carnival Spring Fashion Runway presented by Vogue Australia showcasing the latest Australian spring fashion trends, and a performance by Nat Bassingthwaite along with a $30,000 Cerrone necklace as a major raffle prize.

Edwina McCann – Editor-In-Chief, Vogue Australia – will be the Women of Influence speaker at the Fashion Lunch.

The Australian Turf Club and Racing NSW have been a world leading team over the past few months to keep Sydney racing operating through these times, something no other sport or racing jurisdiction has been able to match.

We look forward over the coming months to continuing to present world class racing and, especially, reading and seeing the wonderful stories and colour these events bring to everyone involved, from the jockeys and trainers, to the owners and connections, and above all the great stars themselves in the thoroughbred horses.

Welcome to Sydney's spectacular Everest Carnival.

Australian Turf Club Chairman

FUJITSU GEORGE MAIN STAKES

GROUP 1 (1600M)
3YO & UP, WEIGHT-FOR-AGE
$500,000

The Fujitsu George Main Stakes is the biggest weight-for-age mile of the Everest Carnival and is a key form guide towards the TAB Epsom.

Modern-day superstars such as Kingston Town, Vo Rogue, Lonhro and Winx have won the George Main so the race's standing is unquestionable.

After Winx won it three times in a row, many of her vanquished were back last year to try to finally win it and Avilius strolled away to victory.

DE BORTOLI WINES GOLDEN ROSE

GROUP 1 (1400M)
3YO SET WEIGHTS
$1,000,000

The De Bortoli Wines Golden Rose is the richest Group 1 race in the Sydney Spring for 3YO sprinters and has become a major target for colts.

As a natural Spring aim following the Longines Golden Slipper in Autumn, it’s place on the calendar also allows further options including the TAB Everest.

Since gaining Group 1 status in 2009, the Woodlands/Darley/Godolphin operations have dominated.

Bivouac continued that last year, holding on from eventual TAB Everest winner Yes Yes Yes.

GOLDEN EAGLE DAY

» SATURDAY 31 OCTOBER 2020
» ROSEHILL GARDENS

The $7.5 million Iron Jack Golden Eagle is one of Australian racing's newest and most innovative events.

Run this year for just the second time, it is designed to keep elite three year olds in training and racing for the Spring, offering connections of four year olds huge prizemoney over the 1500m distance at Rosehill Gardens.

Ten per cent of all prizemoney is distributed to charities of choice selected by the owners of each runner. Off-the-track, pop-up bars, food trucks, the Spring Fashion Stakes fashion competition, a Fabric of Multicultural Australia (FOMA) fashion runway show, a national anthem performance by Erin Holland and award-winning hospitality complements a full day of competitive racing. Guests can also watch the action from Flemington's Derby Day unfold on large screens around the racecourse.

HORSES TO WATCH

3YOs

DOUBTLAND

3YO Colt (Not A Single Doubt x Miss Sharapova)

TRAINERS:
Michael, Wayne & John Hawkes

It was hard not to be impressed with how this colt rounded them up in the Kindergarten Stakes at the Sydney Autumn Racing Carnival. It was a heavy track but it was a dominant four length win. On breeding he should be getting over more than 1100m as well, so the De Bortoli Wines Golden Rose would be an obvious Sydney Spring Carnival target.

TIMEFORM RATING: 112+

FARNAN

3YO Colt (Not A Single Doubt x Tallow)

TRAINERS:
Gai Waterhouse & Adrian Bott

There is always a spotlight on the return of a Longines Golden Slipper winner and this colt wasn't overtaxed at two. His only defeat as a 2YO was in the Magic Millions in what has been a strong form race. The margins Farnan put up in all his wins suggests there is plenty left in his tank. De Bortoli Wines Golden Rose and even a TAB Everest beckon.

TIMEFORM RATING: 122

HUNGRY HEART

3YO Filly (Frankel x Harlech)

TRAINER:
Chris Waller

The Frankel breed are increasingly getting to right trips in Australia and this filly promises to add to that list. Strong from last on the turn in the Sweet Embrace, she also worked home hard to just miss the placings in the Longines Golden Slipper. With the Waller polish has to be a prime candidate for the Darley Flight Stakes and all of the fillies pathway races.

TIMEFORM RATING: 105

NORTH PACIFIC

3YO Colt (Brazen Beau x Up In Lights)

TRAINERS:
Michael & Wayne & John Hawkes

Hawkes Racing thought enough of this colt to run him on debut in a TAB Silver Slipper Stakes. He was around the same price as the winner Farnan who would go on to win the Longines Golden Slipper, so not only was the form good, so was the performance. He looks to have made good improvement and is right in the frame for the De Bortoli Wines Golden Rose and beyond.

TIMEFORM RATING: 115+

PELTZER

3YO Colt (So You Think x Miss Otto)

TRAINER:
Gerald Ryan

This colt has already done things that are not the norm. His two Sydney metropolitan victories came through leading all the way. But more impressive is that he's by So You Think and doing that over sprint distances. The stable is renowned at peaking these three year olds into Group 1 contenders so he looks a major De Bortoli Wines Golden Rose chance.

ROTHFIRE

3YO Gelding (Rothesay x Huss On Fire)

TRAINER:
Robert Heathcote

The previous season's last G1 winner for the two year olds could not have been more imposing. Sitting just behind a good speed in the JJ Atkins, he roared away late. His first up win in Sydney was sensational and confirmed his credentials as a slot runner in the TAB Everest, where he is sure to make his presence felt.

TIMEFORM RATING: 117+

4YOs

ALLIGATOR BLOOD

4YO Gelding (All Too Hard x Lake Superior)

TRAINER:
David Vandyke

Aside from a name which attracts you to him from the start, Alligator Blood backs that up with some attractive efforts on the track. He proved himself worthy of recognition with tough wins in the CS Hayes and then the Australian Guineas. Will sprinting be his domain in the Spring with some huge prizes as stake, right up to the TAB Everest?

TIMEFORM RATING: 123

KINANE

4YO Gelding (Reliable Man x Tres Rapide)

TRAINER:
Chris Waller

Few horses burst onto the scene from winning a maiden to taking a very progressive race in the Frank Packer Plate at Royal Randwick as Kinane did in the Autumn. By Reliable Man he looks a stayer through and through but didn't get the chance to win a Derby so will look to make his mark in several staying features over the months ahead.

TIMEFORM RATING: 112+

MASKED CRUSADER

4YO Gelding (Toronado x She's Got Gears)

TRAINERS:
Michael & Wayne & John Hawkes

Only the winner of benchmark races so far, this son of Toronado made quick progress over a short, sharp Autumn. They were in sprints but his sire made his name over a mile so races such as the TAB Epsom and Iron Jack Golden Eagle could well be perfect targets in the Spring.

TIMEFORM RATING: 103

Nature Strip winning the 2020 TAB TJ Smith Stakes. Bradley Photographers.

SUPERSTORM

4YO Gelding (Sebring x Stormy Nova)

TRAINERS:
Grant & Alana Williams

We've seen Perth horses have great success over East for a long time but especially the last twelve months and it could continue with Superstorm. The Peters-owned horses dipped their toe in the water last year and this gelding showed he was right up to the grade in the Australian Guineas and All-Star Mile. He would look an ideal chance in an Iron Jack Golden Eagle.

TIMEFORM RATING: 119

ZEBROWSKI

4YO Gelding (Savabeel x Polish Princess)

TRAINERS:
Michael & Wayne & John Hawkes

At just his sixth start, he would be beaten a nose in the Australian Derby at Royal Randwick. That showed his potential but Zebrowski gets to fulfil that in the Sydney Spring Carnival. Related to some good horses who got over ground, he has the Heineken Metropolitan as a conceivable aim along with any other staying contest through Spring.

TIMEFORM RATING: 115

5YOS+

CLASSIQUE LEGEND

5YO Gelding (Not A Single Doubt x Pinocchio)

TRAINER:
Les Bridge

With the likelihood of another crack at The TAB Everest, Classique Legend exhibited that he still wanted to be a top line sprinter in taking the Bob Charley AO Stakes on a wet track in June. Not having much luck in the big one last October, he will be fully matured now and in the hands of a great trainer will get every chance again.

TIMEFORM RATING: 121

Zebrowski, 2020, Bradley Photographers.

IMAGING

6YO Horse (Oasis Dream x Mirror Lake)

TRAINER:
Chris Waller

At his first campaign since arriving from the Dermot Weld stable, he was in a rough house Liverpool City Cup and then won the Ajax Stakes in the Sydney Autumn. The big Championship races were then on very heavy ground but after a Winter spell, he could well do much better up to the mile.

TIMEFORM RATING: 113

NATURE STRIP

6YO Gelding (Nicconi x Strikeline)

TRAINER:
Chris Waller

The first horse into this year's The TAB Everest could well be the first horse home too. Nature Strip will be ready to rumble and keep rolling in the big sprint that he ran so well in last year. He loves to dominate a race and make them chase from a long way out. He also seems to be settling and getting better each preparation under the Chris Waller eye.

TIMEFORM RATING: 129

SHARED AMBITION

5YO Gelding (Born To Sea x Almansa)

TRAINER:
Chris Waller

If ever a horse is ready to take on bigger races it is Shared Ambition now that he's had a full season in Australia. Already a four time winner Down Under and up to 2800m too, he was tested over shorter in the Sydney Autumn but looks primed to get back over further now. He can take on some of the top grade Sydney Spring races.

TIMEFORM RATING: 116

JOCKEYS

TO WATCH

BRENTON AVDULLA

While not at the numbers of his Sydney Jockey's Premiership in 2017/18, Avdulla consistently remains high up the Metropolitan table. With Estijaab his biggest win in the 2018 Longines Golden Slipper, he added to his G1 tally with Come Play With Me in the Metropolitan last Spring. He has up and comer Doubtland to look forward to in the major three old races.

TOMMY BERRY

Tommy Berry has started the new season in blazing form. Best known for his efforts on the great grey sprinter Chautauqua, his record, especially at Royal Randwick, is top quality. He's won big Group 1s from Golden Slippers to Sydney Cups as well as big races overseas. Berry is sure to team up on several top gallopers from the powerful Hawkes Racing stable this Spring.

GLEN BOSS

While 'Bossy' doesn't have the number of rides of others, he continues to win the biggest races on the calendar. Adding to his record seven Star Doncaster Miles and the famous three Melbourne Cups on Makybe Diva, he turned the clock back again last Spring to win The Everest on Yes Yes Yes and the Epsom/Golden Eagle double on Kolding. He added to that with a big day at The Championships taking The Star Australian Oaks and Schweppes Sydney Cup.

HUGH BOWMAN

He is forever linked to the immortal Winx, but Hugh Bowman continues to break new ground. In the Autumn he rode the triple crown for the 2YOs - Farnan was dominant in the Longines Golden Slipper and then King's Legacy took the Sires/Champagne double. These two horses will be among a stellar Spring book as he closes in on a century of career Group 1s.

TIM CLARK

Tim Clark was in sublime form at the 2020 Sydney Autumn Racing Carnival. Con Te Partiro and I Am Excited kept him in the Group 1 spotlight. Known for his tremendous judgment in front and rating leaders superbly, his style has forged an excellent relationship with the Waterhouse/Bott yard. That stable is renowned for peaking at the major carnivals.

JASON COLLETT

After winning his first Group 1 last season, Jason Collett has continued to rise through the strong and highly competitive Sydney jockey ranks. Sure to be among stable picks for many of the Sydney Spring Carnival races, he also partners with Gytrash - Inglis's locked in slot runner - towards The TAB Everest.

JAMES McDONALD

James McDonald won another Sydney Premiership last season, getting to 100 winners for the second year in a row. He has a very strong association with the leading Chris Waller yard, including the world's best sprinter Nature Strip. That horse is the nominal favourite for the TAB Everest and along with stablemate Verry Elleegant will be just two of "J Mac's" many top rides.

KERRIN McEVOY

After winning the Melbourne Cup on Brew at just 20, Kerrin McEvoy continues to win big races around the land. His historic back to back wins on Redzel in the first two runnings of The TAB Everest are already folklore. He's got another chance to win the grand prize on Classique Legend and has begun an association with the promising three-year-old Peltzer.

NASH RAWILLER

Nash Rawiller has returned home to Sydney and was immediately back in the top seeds of the riding ranks in 2020. Well entrenched in the top 3 of the Premiership, in Autumn he won the Canterbury Stakes on The Bostonian and George Ryder aboard Dreamforce. His strong, on-pace style is very much a punter's favourite.

TRAINERS TO WATCH

BJORN BAKER

Coming off a season where he more than doubled his Sydney metropolitan winners, Bjorn Baker will look to be winning more of the Group 1 races now from his Warwick Farm base. He landed a major in the Winx Stakes with Samadoubt last year and is likely to be getting his hands on even more quality stock.

JAMES CUMMINGS

Godolphin will always be a major player in Group 1 races and under the eye of James Cummings the stable continues to win big races around Australia. The Sydney Spring beckons for horses of all ages, from the younger Bivouac for the Godolphin slot in the TAB Everest and Collette in major weight for age and staying contests, to the ever-reliable Avilius.

MICHAEL, WAYNE & JOHN HAWKES

The Hall Of Famer John Hawkes, along with his sons Michael and Wayne look to have an incredible squad heading into the Sydney Spring with promising three-year-olds such as North Pacific and Doubtland alongside a growing list of older horses over varying distances including Masked Crusader and Master Of Wine.

ANTHONY FREEDMAN

Anthony Freedman doesn't train the big numbers of some of the other major stables but always has quality rather than quantity. He trained both the Caulfield Guineas and Victoria Derby winner last Spring so the 3YOs were firing. And now a new season one in Hanseatic will pose issues for his opponents this time in.

KRIS LEES

For a provincial based trainer, Kris Lees continues to make his mark in Sydney including at the major carnivals. He sits at the pointy end of the NSW Trainer's Premiership and has a raft of improving stayers with global backgrounds that will be fighting out many finishes around the country. He brought up his 2000th career winner last season.

CIARON MAHER & DAVID EUSTACE

Right up to the mark in the National Premiership, the Maher/Eustace yard keeps churning out the winners and also taking some majors along the way as it continues to build its Sydney stable. Their squadron of three-year-olds shape as perhaps the strongest in the country, headed by the brilliant Anders on a path to the TAB Everest.

PETER & PAUL SNOWDEN

The Snowdens have a long history of winning features - many of them with high quality younger horses. From his days with Crown Lodge to taking over the Darley empire, Peter Snowden has always had great respect. Together now with son Paul they have a stable full of quality, headed by a multiple Group 1 winner in three-year-old King's Legacy.

CHRIS WALLER

Sydney's ten-times Premier Trainer continues to dominate the racing landscape, having trained 111 G1 winners to the end of the last season. He will always be known as trainer of the mighty Winx. On TAB Epsom day last year he trained all three Group Ones at Royal Randwick. To top it off he took home the two biggest events in The TAB Everest and Iron Jack Golden Eagle.

GAI WATERHOUSE & ADRIAN BOTT

The Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott Tulloch Lodge yard had a superb Autumn carnival in 2020, winning Group 1 races week in and week out. The highlight was Gai's seventh Longines Golden Slipper winner Farnan, who will lead the stable's Everest Carnival charge, including in the big race itself, The TAB Everest.

Tajima wagyu sirloin MB4+ (Griffith NSW), spiced cauliflower rice, smoked raspberries, pickled onion and cauliflower foam with raspberry vinaigrette

CARNIVAL HOSPITALITY

Across the Everest Carnival the Australian Turf Club, led by Executive Chefs George Mullen (Royal Randwick) and Gerry Maher (Rosehill Gardens), will be serving some of Australia's finest seafood, meats and vegetables from locally sustainably-sourced producers including Sydney rock oysters from Wonboyne, King prawns from Yamba, humpty doo barramundi, Grass fed tenderloin beef from Red Gum Creek in Riverina and Tajima Wagyu beef from Griffith.

We also serve an array of award winning cheeses from:

Maffra – East Gippsland (Victoria), Woombye – Sunshine Coast Hinterland (Queensland), and Berry's Creek – South Gippsland (Victoria)

DANY KARAM

The Australian Turf Club welcomes award-winning Executive Chef of The Star's BLACK Bar & Grill, Dany Karam, as the feature chef partner for the 2020 Everest Carnival.

"Being able to collaborate with the Australian Turf Club and support local businesses and producers during such an incredibly difficult year is something I'm very passionate about," he said. "I am looking forward to creating something truly special for all guests on course."

"The inspiration behind the menus will be my dishes from BLACK Bar and Grill, my Lebanese heritage, and a mix of popular spring themed ingredients. Together, they will create a unique and fresh flavour experience."

While this year's Carnival will be a first of its kind with vigilant COVID safety measures in place, a world-class dining experience with stunning racetrack views awaits those choosing to be trackside this spring.

Bespoke menus designed by Karam are peppered throughout the Everest Carnival at Royal Randwick, including The Grandview Restaurant across TAB Epsom Day (October 3), Moët & Chandon Spring Champion Stakes Day (October 10) and Everest Day (October 17).

Karam began his culinary career at the age of 16 in Lebanon, his country of birth. After five years of intense training, he travelled to France to further develop his skills while gaining a broader understanding of modern European cuisine.

Dany took the role of Executive Chef at the BLACK Bar & Grill in 2014, where he was awarded the coveted 'Chef of the Year' at the Tourism Accommodation Australia (TAA) NSW Awards for Excellence in 2017. Karam is also responsible for overseeing the menu at The Star Sydney's newly opened Middle Eastern inspired venue Bar Tikram.

The Star chef has created a luxury dining experience for the popular 2020 Everest Carnival Fashion Lunch on 3 October including:

- » Fillet Rangers Valley MBS 3+ - Asparagus, smoked potato, charred baby leeks, and gremolata
- » Toothfish Glacier 51 - Baby spinach, Enoki salad, lime, and black pepper sauce, and
- » Coffee Parfait - Mandarin, mascarpone cream, and spiced caramel (pictured below)

JESS PEGORARO'S TRACKSIDE STYLING TIPS

ATC's Official Stylist shares her top racewear fashion tips to make sure you are looking your best either on or off-the-track this season:

TIE DYE

"This is a trend of the moment and I've seen it being weaved into everything from loungewear to accessories – I can't wait to see how this comes to life trackside!"

VINTAGE FINDS

"Pairing something old with something new can work wonders for your overall look – and then just add something blue for Everest Day!"

BRIGHT & BOLD

"Inject some colour into 2020 with a colourful curation – block colours never go out of fashion, so let the colour of the rainbow be your inspiration."

1 "Your entire outfit does not need to be straight off the runway – pair pre-loved favourites from your wardrobe with key trending pieces. Vintage finds are always in fashion and we will be seeing sustainable trends continue to come to the forefront in event dressing.

2 Don't be afraid to stand out of the crowd – the races are all about making a statement, whether that is with bold millinery, bright colours or voluminous shapes. Forget traditional fashion rules as the more fun you can have with an outfit, the better!

3 Invest in pieces that you will re-wear for years to come – think classic silhouettes in luxe fabrics and conservative patterns that will pass the test of time and can be restyled in a multitude of ways. These can then be dressed up or down and will become a real staple in your event wardrobe and could even transcend into your everyday dressing.

4 Remember, you don't need to spend a lot of money to create a high-end look. Get creative and look at hiring an outfit from one of Sydney's many designer rental platforms – a great solution for those who often only wear an outfit once.

5 Most importantly, ensure that the styling is a true showcase of you! Let your unique personality shine through trackside and don't forget to pair it with a smile and a glass of bubbly."

MICHAEL BROWN'S TRACKSIDE BEAUTY ADVICE

Whether you're joining the races on or off track, these beauty tips and tricks from ATC's official beauty expert will help your look go the distance. From long lasting makeup to working the natural light to showcase your beauty looks at home, take these notes as inspiration and step into spring with a fresh perspective.

Don't forget to work in Everest Carnival's haircare partner Tresemmé, which offers a huge range of salon quality products to finish your perfect raceday look.

EYES

Coloured liners are a big trend right now and perfect for spring. Keep your shadow bases neutral and apply a coloured liner to the inner & central eyelid in a tone that compliments your outfit and smudge it up with a brush to lift, pop and bond to your eyelid for great staying power.

LIPS

Spring racing is definitely a celebration of colour, but be sure to not let colour take over your entire look. If your outfit is more neutral, dress it up with a bold lip colour. But if you're already wearing a colour or busy pattern, compliment it with just a hint of colour to the eye or lip and blend any excess on the apple of the cheek.

HAIR

Think of hair as a 'finisher' of your entire look and overall framing. If your millinery is large then keep hair simple to create balance and if small, then try a more styled look. Wearing your hair down is a great spring look, but try a side part, or tuck hair behind your ears to show off the face and headwear.

SKIN

It's important to prep skin for long-wear makeup days, but most importantly keeping the face balanced. Use a blurring mattifying primer through the T-zone to control excess shine, then dab face oil onto the cheekbones, before foundation, for a fresh skin glow.

1. "If using an additional highlighter, remember the races is in day light, so avoid over sparkly metallic textures. If posting to social media, angle your face toward the natural light to showcase this glow to camera"

2. "A metallic liner makes this effect so much more interesting and contrasting for the eyes. It's a great way to highlight or compliment your fashion attire, especially if you're entering the virtual spring Fashion Stakes"

3. "Moisturising lip balm, textured lipsticks and lip oils are a big trend and perfect for light pops of colour and a great texture for long-wear racedays"

4. "Try using less hairspray which can dry hard and not wear well over time. Instead, try dry texture spray which gives minimal hold so hair can move freely, yet look textured and defined, especially for waves"

NEIL GRIGG

"What a year 2020 has been. The horses have kept racing throughout, but for those out of the saddle, it's been a true challenge. However, with Everest Carnival upon us, it gives us creative types something to cheer about!

With my latest collection ready to launch and the growing need for masks, I started to experiment with fashion forward face shields - which have garnered international attention and a home at both The Powerhouse Museum and the Museum of Contemporary Art in Sydney.

Although face masks and shields are a growing part of my business, millinery is and always will be my first love - I can't wait to see feathers and colour come together this Spring, with bright winged fascinators fluttering trackside, as you'll see featured in this Style Guide on TAB Epsom Day."

VICTORIA NOVAK

"2020 has most definitely been one of the most challenging years since I launched my brand in 2006. Although initially there were feelings of uncertainly, I have taken this opportunity to elevate my core purpose. I'm feeling confident and excited to go back to my roots.

Now more than ever, people are more self-aware of their shopping habits and are proactively opting to support local and Australian made.

This gives me confidence in the personalised experiences I offer clients who are desiring bespoke millinery designs in a safe private environment, where I continue to design and handcraft each and every piece.

More recently, I have been inspired by my love of nature and indoor plant collection. One of my favorite flowers is the hydrangea as I love the colour variations and have created a millinery piece called Hydrangeas Garden, which features lilac fabric flowers.

I individually hand paint each flower to give it a unique finishing touch. This piece remains timeless and is the perfect choice for a delicate understated fresh spring look complementing a feminine dress."

ANN SHOEBRIDGE

"As a creative, 2020 has been tough, however I'm an optimist and change brings a new direction. The limitations on event dressing has brought new opportunities to explore fresh headwear looks for the home or online Zoom party.

It's about simplicity with a sharp simple scarf in a casual will or more glamorous organza - a great option to hide those unruly locks. A sophisticated, demure headband paired with sleek hair can also transition for various occasions such as the races, dinner party or even an online date.

Ann Shoebridge Millinery continues to produce custom designs for clients and over the past few months has seen an increased demand for turbans and wraps.

To align with the current climate, I have also launched a diffusion line called Studio Ann Shoebridge. Elegant, colourful and playful Studio Ann Shoebridge offers affordable headwear in carefully designed sophisticated styles.

The pink bow (pictured left) featured in the Style Guide is a chic, easy to wear bow from Studio Ann Shoebridge, which was inspired by Catherine Deneuve's timeless look."

NERIDA WINTER

"2020 has certainly provided challenges for us all, but it has also given us the rare gift of time to prioritise what's really important to us, allowing us to reimagine our roles and purpose. The current landscape has highlighted our need to support local and celebrate all that is Australian, as well as provide a perfect platform to grow and adapt our businesses locally.

In my case, I have swiftly pivoted and relocated to Neridawinter.com with a new range launching in mid-September and am making exciting plans to form new local collaborations and execute future pop-up experiences on home soil.

The Nerida Winter 2020 Spring/Summer racing collection revolves around the return to high glamour wide brim hats, that double as fabulous social distancing tools - its the bigger the better this season!

Racing is a magical collision of sport and style so I'm really looking forward to seeing the power and influence fashion has at this year's Everest Carnival. I truly believe fashion has the ability to inspire us and provide escapism in times of uncertainty."
