THE STAR CHAMPIONSHIPS DAY 1

» | APRIL 2023, ROYAL RANDWICK

The opening day of Royal Randwick’s part in the Sydney Autumn Racing Carnival features four of Australian racing’s most prestigious events. The Group 1 $4 million The Star Doncaster Mile, Group 1 $3 million Furphy T J Smith Stakes, Group 1 $2 million ATC Australian Derby, and Group 1 $1 million Inglis Sires’ attract the nation’s best horses across all age groups and different distances.

The Star Doncaster Mile with its time-honoured handicap conditions and Furphy T J Smith Stakes as the highest rated sprint race in the world launch from two of world racing’s best and most testing starts.

Since 1861 the blue-riband ATC Australian Derby has been an iconic Royal Randwick race while the Inglis Sires’ is the second leg of Sydney’s breed shaping and lucrative 2YO Triple Crown.

Away from the track guests on course are encouraged to don traditional black and white racewear as Sydney’s most stylish socialise and compete in the sought-after Sydney Confidential Fashion Stakes. Guests will look and feel their best after a visit at our Pamper Pavilion, our brand-new fashion hub for this Sydney Autumn Racing Carnival at Royal Randwick

THE CHAMPIONSHIPS DAY 2
- LONGINES QUEEN ELIZABETH
STAKES DAY

» 8 APRIL 2023, ROYAL RANDWICK

In recent years the $5 million Longines Queen Elizabeth Stakes has been officially rated as Australia's highest in the world rankings, adding more recent history to an honour roll of our greatest ever champions.

Through just the past few decades horses such as Our Poetic Prince, Rough Habit, Might and Power, Lonhro, Grand Armee, More Joyous, It's A Dundee and the greatest of all Winx (three times) have won.

Further lifting the race's standing in 2020 and 2021 was dual winner and international visitor Addeybb, helping to make him the world's highest rated racehorse.

The day also features three other Group 1 races - the $2 million Schweppes Sydney Cup over the famous two miles, $1 million The Star Australian Oaks for the fillies and $1 million Queen Of The Turf.

At the end of this stellar raceday the entertainment continues with Hot Dub Time Machine performing his infectious retro tunes in the Theatre Of The Horse as Sydney celebrates one of the city's biggest days of sport.

BRENTON AVDULLA

The last couple of seasons in Sydney have seen a rejuvenation in his career following serious injuries. The highlight was a storming victory on filly Fireburn in last the 2022 Longines Golden Slipper, his second in the iconic race (Estijaab 2018). Carried form through to Spring and Everest Carnival with feature wins on Ellsberg and a second in TAB Everest and victory in Nature Strip Stakes with Private Eye.

HUGH BOWMAN

While Hugh made a move to Hong Kong in the second half of the season, he will look to return at the back end of the Sydney Autumn Racing Carnival. Has more than 100 Group 1 winners on the CV, including those 25 with the immortal Winx forever etched in racing folklore. One of the world's elite jockeys.

TIM CLARK

Maintains a strong association with trainers Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott who again loom as a formidable force in the Sydney Autumn. Almost half of Tim's 22 Group 1s (by carnival beginning) have been with Tulloch Lodge. Likely to team up with cult horse Alligator Blood in perhaps a Star Doncaster or Longines Queen Elizabeth Stakes.

JAMES McDONALD

Rated the world's best jockey. A six-time Sydney premiership winner, JMac sits at 74 Group 1s before the season began. The world saw his talents at Royal Ascot aboard Nature Strip, and horse and rider now head toward an unprecedented fourth consecutive TJ Smith Stakes. Amongst many stars, James rides Australia's highest rated horse Anamoe.

RACHEL KING

Royal Randwick has been a happy hunting ground for Rachel King so far in her career, with Knights Order's Schweppes Sydney Cup last Autumn adding a second Group 1 to her rising career amongst the world's most competitive jockeys room. Adaptable jockey who has a knack with sprinters and stayers alike.

KERRIN McEVOY

The winner of more than 80 Group One races, count on Kerrin McEvoy to be in the thick of the action right across the Sydney Autumn Racing Carnival. Has won a Longines Golden Slipper and a Schweppes Sydney Cup - and races at many distances in between. Look for him to pair with the Peter and Paul Snowden stable.

NASH RAWILLER

One of Sydney's most successful jockeys with three premierships, Nash is a punter's favourite for his strength in the final stages to get horses over the line. His spectacular ride on Think It Over to win last year's Longines Queen Elizabeth Stakes, heading towards the outside rail, will be hailed for decades for its judgement, daring and tactical brilliance.

THE APPRENTICES

A group of NSW apprentices are being touted by former champion jockeys and trainers alike as amongst the most talented in many decades. Tyler Schiller sits entrenched in the top ten of the Sydney premiership, and Zac Lloyd, Dylan Gibbons and Reece Jones, watch for one or several to hit the headlines in Group races across the Sydney Autumn Racing Carnival.

LEADING TRAINERS

Third row: Joe Pride, Chris Waller

Bottom row: Bjorn Baker, Peter & Paul Snowden, Adrian Bott

JAMES CUMMINGS

Sydney's head trainer for Godolphin's powerful "Blue Army", the grandson of legendary Bart is rapidly building a record in his own name, not least with the nation's best horse Anamoe. Stable has many big guns in In Secret, Aft Cabin and Golden Mile, as well as a group of two-year-olds who will be forces across all legs of the Triple Crown.

MICHAEL, WAYNE & JOHN HAWKES

Hawkes Racing with the experience of Hall Of Fame patriarch John and his sons Michael and Wayne regularly come to the fore across the Rosehill Gardens and Royal Randwick carnivals. Stable particularly prides itself on turning colts into commercial stallions, albeit combining to win two Longines Golden Slippers in the past decade (Mossfun and Estijaab).

ANNABEL NEASHAM

A rising star in the Sydney training ranks, Annabel Neasham mixes elite horse skills with business acumen tied to major thoroughbred owners and investors such as Coolmore and Aquis. Has proven adept with older and established stable stars.

CIARON MAHER & DAVID EUSTACE

A huge 2022 saw the Maher/Eustace team taking some of the biggest and best races around the land as they continue to build their numbers and presence in Sydney. From Derbies to Guineas, two-year-olds and sprints to the two miles, skilled at training horses of all ages.

JOHN O'SHEA

Amongst Sydney's most accomplished and respected trainers, has built a strong team over several years from scratch after a highly successful stint as Godolphin head trainer. Will take special effort in sprinter Lost and Running after his untimely late withdrawal from the TAB Everest. Off the back of a huge summer, look for the stable on their home track at Royal Randwick in the big features, including stayer Benaud.

JOE PRIDE

Highly respected horseman Joe Pride continues to compete in the cauldron of Sydney training ranks with star gallopers Eduardo and Private Eye taking the Warwick Farmhouse mentor to a new level in recent years. Manages to get horses to feature races without the backing of high-priced yearlings or the biggest investors. Stockman for loyal supporters Proven Thoroughbreds working to a Schweppes Sydney Cup.

CHRIS WALLER

Sydney's leading trainer and 12-time Premiership winner is synonymous with the immortal Winx. Superstar in Nature Strip (aiming for an unprecedented fourth TJ Smith Stakes) is joined by a fleet of stablemates across every Group 1 and feature. Has already this autumn claimed his first Longines Golden Slipper with Shinzo at the stable's beloved home track at Rosehill Gardens.

BJORN BAKER

Warwick Farm's Bjorn Baker has cemented himself in the highest echelon of Sydney trainers, finishing in the top Premiership four over the past three seasons amongst powerhouses Waller, Godolphin/Cummings and Waterhouse and Bott. Constantly picking up Blacktype races, had his first TAB Everest runners in Spring in Overpass and Shades Of Rose, with the latter set to be a major Autumn player.

PETER & PAUL SNOWDEN

Kings of the juvenile runners, skill and decades of experience has seen the remarkable story of older sprinter Redzel taking the first two TAB Everests. Elder statesman Peter with decades of experience and success around Crown Lodge and Darley, now with son Paul building a stable that targets mostly sprints and middle distance features.

GAI WATERHOUSE & ADRIAN BOTT

Since joining forces, the Tulloch Lodge duo have been flying. Alligator Blood is a classic example of horse thriving on the 'bone and muscle' famously connected to the Royal Randwick stable. Gai - an icon of Australian racing - individually holds the all-time training record of several of the most famous races, notably including the Longines Golden Slipper.

FASHION SUMMARY

DONNY GALLELA FASHION TIPS
Australian Turf Club Stylist

The spectacular six-week Sydney Autumn Racing Carnival is a great opportunity to glam up, feel fabulous and enjoy a day out with friends.

Here's how to look your best for some of the biggest days of the Carnival.

- » THE STAR CHAMPIONSHIP DAY 1 - BLACK AND WHITE
Black and white is always such a chic combo. A huge trend we are seeing are sets, blouses with matching pants. A great option for the races. You don't have to always wear a dress. I started with this Ginger and Smart set, and adopted a pearl theme. Pearls can be seen on her headpiece, her neck tie, her handbag and on her heels. For the guys, play with textures this season. A velvet jacket or maybe a print like houndstooth. Have fun with accessories, rather than a tie, opt for a bowtie, add some fun print socks.
- » THE CHAMPIONSHIP DAY 2 - LONGINES QUEEN ELIZABETH STAKES DAY - BLUE
This season, embrace colour. Volume such as puffy sleeves and shoulders continues to be a huge trend as is this midi length style dresses. Have fun with accessories, all her accessorise match back to her dress. All the crystal beads around her felt hat, also match the colours in her dress.

WHERE STORIES ARE MADE

5.30AM AND THE RACE IS ON.

“ On The Star Championships Day 1 we get nearly 20,000 through the gates at Royal Randwick. They’re all hungry, thirsty and looking forward to a great day of racing. As Group Executive Chef, my day starts early. I’m up in the dark – making sure the deliveries arrive and the prep is done before the gates open, while the course is still peaceful. The calm before the storm! But then it’s full-on, hectic, brilliant and beautiful. Everyone out in their finest, having a great time. Sydney doing what it does best.”
