FIVE DIAMONDS – Antino – Brings clear-cut best ratings into this and from the low draw maps nicely. Struggling to find any dangers and we'll be protecting it throughout betting.

BEST BET – R7 – Shangri La Express – Impressive winner last start and this colt was strong through the line. If gets across to lead will be very hard to run down, and we can't see the 1100m being any issue.

VALUE BET – R4 – Monte Outlander – Had the tongue-tie removed three starts ago and looks a new horse since with consistent ratings. Drops to 53kg with the claim and from the low draw stalking the speed should be hard to hold out.

LAY BET – R4 – Bandasha – Wary taking on Dunn stable in a highway but have to risk at current price from barrier 22, likely ridden cold needing luck.

FIVE DIAMONDS – Zoumon – Returns to Rosehill where he has performed well in the past and has 3 wins from 4 attempts second run in. Rachel King will steer from a good draw and the Zoustar gelding will appreciate the step up to the 1800.

BEST BET – R3 – Dollar Magic – Has been running well this preparation without a win, but looks well suited dropping back down to the 1100 from a soft draw and should jump straight to the front and be hard to run down.

VALUE BET – R4 – Xelby – Has 2 wins from 4 starts this prep on the country circuit. Had a dominant win over the 1300 at Bathurst when stepping up in distance and should be up on the pace here with stepping up another 100 metres to the 1400.

LAY BET – R9 – Gringotts – Willing to risk at the short odds, might be looking for a little more distance now.

FIVE DIAMONDS – Democracy Manifest – Has been running well this prep but I think he will enjoy the step out to 1800m now and Nash Rawiller takes the reins on him. Will have to go back from the barrier but he will be running on late and make his presence felt.

BEST BET – R2 – Caboche – Solid second last start behind Peshmerga and gets out to 2400m now. He looks a class above his opposition here and Nash Rawiller picks up the ride. He should be able to sit close and prove too good in this class.

VALUE BET – R10 – Wizard of Oz – Has been running in excellent form and I think he can control things from the front here. Should be able to cross from barrier 5 and give them something to catch. I'm happy to take him each way around the $11 mark.

LAY BET – R6 – Royal Merchant – Has not been ultra impressive in either start this prep yet has come up favourite here around the $2.60 mark. She has had 6 attempts at the 1400m and is yet to win. She is a quality mare but I'm happy to take her on around the $2.60 mark.

FIVE DIAMONDS – Democracy Manifest – The favourite is hard to miss after 2 close 2nds in classy Melbourne races, but looking for value here. Democracy Manifest is untried beyond 1600m but hit the line last start like he'll lap up the extra 200m like a succulent Chinese meal. Nash is one from one on him too.

BEST BET – R7 – Scampi – Disappointing favourite after leading in the Breeders Plate, but loved his recent trial when ridden from behind.

VALUE BET – R6 – Russian Conquest – Better than these as a 2yo and could be headed back to that form after her close 2nd last start.

LAY BET – R7 – Shangri La Express – Exciting 2yo but happy to risk at the current quote from the wide draw.

FIVE DIAMONDS – Palmetto – Tough to split these. -favoring Palmetto from inside barrier to get a nice run.

BEST BET – R2 – Caboche – with N. Rawiller riding should get the run of the race.

VALUE BET – R8 – Fawkner Park – Big run last start represents value at current odds.

LAY BET – R4 – Monte Outlander – no value at current price , as equal favorite.
