The $10 million James Squire Golden Eagle is already entrenched as the premier race for four-year-olds on the Australian calendar. Targeted by horses from around the world, in just four runnings it has been won by Kolding (2019), Colette (2020), I'm Thunderstruck (2021) and I Wish I Win (2022), an honour roll of multiple Group 1 winning horses.

Not only Australia's second richest race, a further innovative feature is 10 per cent of all prizemoney donated to charities selected by the owners of each runner.

The $10 million James Squire Golden Eagle – a stellar spring event in Sydney's west – was created to keep star horses racing beyond their three-year-old year. It is only open to four-year-old horses. The race's first three winners had already won at least one Group 1 race prior to taking the Golden Eagle, further establishing the race's high rating.

While Kolding was able to maintain his brilliant Spring form in 2019, second time around it was a mare Colette who was aimed specifically for the race after being good enough to win an Oaks back in the previous Autumn.

Then in 2021 the Victorians came to prosper as I'm Thunderstruck charged through the field. Twelve months on, another from Melbourne I Wish I Win got a march on the rivals before having to stave off a host of other Group 1 winners.

NOTES

FIRST RUNNING:

2019 (won by Kolding).

RACE RECORD:

1:27.90 (I'm Thunderstruck 2021).

LEADING TRAINERS:

Chris Waller (1), James Cummings (1), Mick Price & Michael Kent Jnr (1).

LEADING JOCKEYS:

Glen Boss (1), Koby Jennings (1), Hugh Bowman (1).

INTERESTING FACTS:

- » International entries ran in the first edition – Beat Le Bon (6th), I Am Superman (13th), Never No More (14th). Three more ran in Year 3 with Laws Of Indices (5th), Maximal (6th) and Reve De Vol (11th).
- » In 2019 there were 3 who backed up from running in The Everest – Sunlight (2nd), Arcadia Queen (5th), Classique Legend (10th). None did so in 2020 or 2021.
- » Most Horses Trained (6) - Chris Waller (1 win). With I'm Thunderstruck winning there was a third successive Group 1 winner saluting in all three editions.
- » I Wish I Win was the first non G1 winner to score, however within 2L of him, were three mares who won G1s in their 3yo filly season. He'd rectify that with the TJ win in the Autumn.
