INGHAM – Lions Roar – Ran on well in the Little Dance on Melbourne Cup day after giving away too bigger start. This time in has a favourable draw and should be able to settle closer and has been freshened up with a trial win.

BEST BET – R6 – I'mintowin – Former Kiwi runner's two starts in Australia have resulted in a close third when well backed last start and a win first up. Should be able to jump close to the lead and be hard to run down.

VALUE BET – R9 – Stray – Has been running well without winning and is posted big odds here. She should be able to find a spot just off the pace and will be hitting the line well.

LAY BET – R10 – Way To The Stars – Finds a very competitive race with plenty of speed but has been listed a short priced favourite and having his first start on the Randwick course proper. Looking elsewhere for value.

INGHAM – Detonator Jack – Excellent last start winner of The Gong. He will need to produce a similar effort here but he is 3 from 3 over 1600m and Jason Collett sticks with him. Will have to go back from the gate but expect another big run late.

BEST BET – R10 – Iowna Merc – Solid first up effort over 1000m at Randwick on Melbourne Cup day and has been kept up to the mark with a solid trial win. 2 wins in 3 starts over 1100m at Randwick and senior jockey Rachel King takes the ride.

VALUE BET – R8 – Waihaha Falls – Not his best effort first up but he has been kept fresh for this and I expect natural improvement second up. He has a good record over the 1200m at Randwick and has drawn well in barrier 3.

LAY BET – R5 – Blue Stratum – Ran 2nd on debut but there wasn't much between the top 3. He was pretty green there and it could cost him again here against a couple of smart ones from the Maher and Eustace stable and a Waterhouse Bott filly who looks ready to roll.

INGHAM – Williamsburg – Should have won easily last week. Up in grade but drawn to get a great run, and good lightweight hope at big odds.

BEST BET – R9 – Aristonous – Won over this course and distance as topweight when coming from last in June, and could easily repeat that based on an excellent trial.

VALUE BET – R4 – Diamond Diesel – Showed he's ready for this with a cruising 2nd in a recent trial. Well up to this on past performances and looks value despite the wide draw.

LAY BET – R4 – Terra Mater – Easy Canterbury win but up in class and happy to risk at the current quote.

INGHAM – Attractable – Hard to split these, favoring Attractable to get a good run from inside barrier.

BEST BET – R2 – Golden Decade – Golden Decade with Nash Rawiller riding -looks the one.

VALUE BET – R10 – Dehorned Unicorn – get condition to suit, represents value with Sam Clipperton riding.

LAY BET – R8 – Insurrection – no value as short priced favorite.

INGHAM – Osipenko – Osipenko started shorter than Detonator Jack (fave here) when they met LS at Kembla. Osipenko was taken back from a wide barrier and couldn't make up ground on the Heavy 8. Can be forgiven, and should get out to a better price

BEST BET – R8 – With Your Blessing – With Your Blessing ran on well LS to win from off the pace. Looks a similar set up today - at same distance, similar map, finds tougher opposition but drops 6.5kg. Can run good time.

VALUE BET – R3 – Imatruestar – Imatruestar was well backed LS, but was held up early in the straight, shifted out, and only made good ground when out late. He draws inside today, and with any luck in run could storm over them at a big price.

LAY BET – R4 – Terra Mater – This is a very open race despite what the early market suggests, and Terra Mater is far too short. While she drops 1kg, she finds tougher competition and some of them look to find considerable improvement.
