GROUP 1 (1600M)

3YO & UP, WEIGHT-FOR-AGE

$500,000

Winx, 2018. Bradley Photographers.

The TAB Epsom run a fortnight later these days often has its form best shown from the George Main run at weight-for-age.

Horses the likes of Shannon, Kingston Town, Vo Rogue, Lonhro and Winx have won it so the race's standing is unquestionable.

Despite being at WFA, horses who've run top races at handicap level in previous Doncasters are very much to the fore.

Making it a trifecta of triumphs, Winx looked like she joined in up the rise in 2018. Winx powered away to win by four lengths.

GROUP 1 (1400M)
3YO SET WEIGHTS
$1,000,000

Autumn Sun, 2018. Bradley Photographers.

The former Peter Pan Stakes became the Golden Rose in 2003 and is the richest Group 1 race for the three-year-olds in the Sydney Spring.

The extension of the Longines Golden Slipper run six months beforehand, it now forms an important part of the make up of the carnival and also in the breeding industry.

2009 saw the first edition as a Group 1 race won by Denman which started a history in the race for the breeding giant that would morph from Crown Lodge/Darley/Godolphin operation over a sustained period of time.

It is also a top form guide for the Caulfield Guineas.

TAB EPSOM HANDICAP

GROUP 1 (1600M)
3YO & UP HANDICAP
$1,000,000

Great mile races in Australia have always been held at Royal Randwick and the TAB Epsom is the big spring highlight.

From the best starting point in the country, many historic moments have occurred in this race. It might be a handicap but elite horses win it.

One of those freak milers was Super Impose. Lee Freedman’s gelding would win four straight ‘big miles’ in 1990 and 1991, including back-to-back Epsoms..

Making them more remarkable was that he started with 57kg and the last one in the Epsom of 1991 saw him lump 61kg. It lead racecaller John Tapp to cheer him home saying “It’s history at Randwick”.

DARLEY FLIGHT STAKES

GROUP 1 (1600M)
3YO FILLIES SET WEIGHTS
$500,000

The Darley Flight Stakes is Sydney's three-year-old fillies semi-classic and has been a top form guide for the future.

It is named after a brilliant filly/mare who would win two Cox Plates and the honour roll provides a great indication as to how they will race on.

Some of those elite ones include Wenona Girl, Bounding Away, Sunline and More Joyous.

Again the Royal Randwick mile has been a playground for Tulloch Lodge as between TJ and Gai, they've won it 22 times.

MOËT & CHANDON SPRING CHAMPION STAKES

GROUP 1 (2000M)
3YO SET WEIGHTS
$1,000,000

This previously was known as the Australasian Champion Stakes and run in the autumn as a three-year-old feature.

When the AJC Derby was moved, this Group 1 was switched to the spring and known as the Spring Champion Stakes.

It is the first chance for the three-year-olds to show any staying prowess and prizemoney has now been upped to $1million.

Even with its relatively short existence, the likes of Kingston Town, Sir Dapper, Beau Zam, Stylish Century, Tie The Knot, Savabeel and Dundee are some of the winners.

BONDI STAKES

(1600M)
3YO SET WEIGHTS
$1,000,000

Another new race will be the Bondi Stakes worth $1million for the three-year-olds at Randwick.

To be run over the 1600m, many of the elite horses of their generation get to contest this rich race over the famous Royal Randwick mile.

This could well become a great guide for those same horses who come back in the Autumn and take on races such as the Randwick Guineas and the world famous The Star Doncaster Mile in the autumn.

GOLDEN EAGLE DAY

SATURDAY 2 NOVEMBER 2019

The inaugural Golden Eagle takes flight at Rosehill Gardens. The 1500m race for four year olds is Australia's third richest race, with 10 per cent of the $7.5million prizemoney immediately being donated to the winning owners' charity of choice.

This is a new landmark sporting event for Western Sydney with live entertainment, fashion, award-winning hospitality and all the excitement of the first running of the Golden Eagle.

GOLDEN EAGLE

(1500M)
4YO SET WEIGHTS
$7,500,000

Racing NSW and the Australian Turf Club have developed a race for four year olds which will provide a first in Australian racing for that age group.

We see many younger horses head off to stud and a race such as the Golden Eagle will be one to target and keep them in training.

Run over 1500m, it is worth $7.5million making it Australia's third richest race.

An important community aspect is that 10% of all prizemoney is allocated to a charity directed by the Managing Owner.

Some slotted for the 2019 The TAB Everest could also compete, making it a potentially massive result for owners.

HORSES TO WATCH

3YO

CASTELVECCHIO

3YO Colt (Dundeel x St. Therese)

TRAINER:
Richard Litt

TIMEFORM RATING:
121

If ever a horse was going to be a stayer in time it was this colt. By a six length Australian Derby winner and also a half-brother to a Spring Champion winner, he showed great performances to sprint and yet looked like he'd just joined in topping the rise in the Champagne Stakes. He can contest anything this Spring and be competitive, beginning with the Group 1 $1million De Bortoli Wines Golden Rose.

COSMIC FORCE

3YO Colt (Deep Field x Little Zeta)

TRAINERS:
Peter & Paul Snowden

TIMEFORM RATING:
116

Two-year-old winners don't come much more impressive than his effort in the Pago Pago Stakes. His margin was so big it meant he ran favourite in the Longines Golden Slipper but he couldn't repeat that on the heavy ground. The son of Deep Field should be able to get 1400m and therefore be a chance in a race such as the Group 1 $1million Golden Rose.

FLIT

3YO Filly (Medaglia D'Oro x Glissade)

TRAINER:
James Cummings

TIMEFORM RATING:
109

While yet to run beyond 1200m, Flit has shown she could easily be capable of getting a mile and become a live Group 1 Flight Stakes chance. She missed by a nose in the Percy Sykes and Godolphin generally set their elite fillies for the feature mile at Randwick. Watch for her over the Darley Princess Series.

Castelvecchio, 2019. Bradley Photographers.

KUBRICK

3YO Colt (Shooting To Win x Alcatraz)

TRAINER:
Chris Waller

TIMEFORM RATING:
114

After running in three different states at his first three starts, this young horse will have benefitted greatly from a spell and being set for the Spring. His run in the Group 1 JJ Atkins in Brisbane was a cracker after being forced to sit wide the entire mile journey. Only grabbed in the last 50m, he looks a real miler in the making.

LIBERTINI

3YO Filly (I Am Invincible x Aloha)

TRAINER:
Anthony Cummings

TIMEFORM RATING:
109

Another of the I Am Invincible juveniles who will likely only get better as a 3yo. Following a great run on debut, she broke her maiden in style then went to Listed company at Scone and was barely touched. Her first up win in the Darley Silver Shadow Stakes – the first leg of the Darley Princess Series – was that of an outstanding filly. Her mother won a Coolmore Classic so you would think a Flight Stakes is a natural target race.

POWER SCHEME

3YO Colt (Fiorente x Rosa Perlato)

TRAINERS:
David & Ben Hayes & Tom Dabernig

TIMEFORM RATING:
107

Lindsay Park has a real staying bred type on their hands and the son of Fiorente has already shown a liking for Royal Randwick taking the Fernhill Handicap in the Autumn. He will really enjoy going to the longer trips this Spring and a Moët & Chandon Spring Champion Stakes is a nice race to aim at.

SHADOW HERO

3YO Gelding (Pierro x Sookie)

TRAINER:
Mark Newnham

TIMEFORM RATING:
107

Mark Newnham had a great trot with his young horses last season and this Pierro youngster is going to be one to be reckoned with as the races lengthen out. Most of the breed get better with age, as he already has three Derby and an Oaks winner.

4YOs

ARCADIA QUEEN

4YO Mare (Pierro x Arcadia)

TRAINER:
Chris Waller

TIMEFORM RATING:
121

With the TAB Everest a first objective, the former Perth horse has been sent to leading trainer Chris Waller to take her place in the world's richest race on turf. Owner Bob Peters has both the TAB Everest and a fortnight later, the new race the Golden Eagle, on his mind. Her WA Guineas and Kingston Town Classic victories were dynamic.

CLASSIQUE LEGEND

4YO Gelding (Not A Single Doubt x Pinocchio)

TRAINER:
Les Bridge

TIMEFORM RATING:
114

Few horses burst onto the scene from winning midweek races in the manner he did but he was able to substantiate that on a bigger stage. Unlucky in the Darby Munro, he got redemption in the Arrowfield 3YO Sprint during The Championships. Slotted for the TAB Everest, the big grey will be a fascinating addition to the race.

VERRY ELLEEGANT

4YO Mare (Zed x Opulence)

TRAINER:
Chris Waller

TIMEFORM RATING:
120

Fillies can mature quickly late in their 3YO year and this ex-kiwi did just that after being transferred to Chris Waller. She won the Phar Lap, then Vinery Stud Stakes before winding over her rivals in the Australian Oaks courtesy of a patient James McDonald ride. Hard to see her not advancing this campaign to another big Group 1 target.

5YOs+

ALIZEE

5YO Mare (Sepoy x Essaouira)

TRAINER:
James Cummings

TIMEFORM RATING:
121

Godolphin's top mare has shown great versatility so far winning from 1100m to 1600m including three Group 1s. A brilliant fresh horse, she has a devastating turn of foot when having last crack at them. She will be a strong contender through the Sydney Spring, especially if she can get some dry ground. Could end up being Godolphin's TAB Everest runner.

PIERATA

5YO Horse (Pierro x November Flight)

TRAINER:
Greg Hickman

TIMEFORM RATING:
125

After seemingly finishing his career with a deserved Group 1 win in the Schweppes All Aged Stakes, Pierata's connections put off stud duties to run in the TAB Everest. The son of Pierro had an excellent Autumn but just missed in The Galaxy. However he got the important win at Royal Randwick and now a fully matured entire, he can attack the big race on an upward spiral.

SANTA ANA LANE

7YO Gelding (Lope De Vega x Fast Fleet)

TRAINER:
Anthony Freedman

TIMEFORM RATING:
130

The TJ Smith Stakes winner from the Autumn has already been slotted into the 2019 TAB Everest field and it was never going to take long for him to be snapped up. With five Group 1s to his name, he has a great international rating and his devastating last two furlongs has seen him come from off the pace many times to score. Adept on all ground, he will be tough for rivals to hold off in the $14m showpiece.

Santa Ana Lane, 2019. Bradley Photographers.

KEY JOCKEYS

BRENTON AVDULLA

After beginning his riding career in Victoria, Brenton Avdulla has made Sydney his home with great success. His biggest result was the last of his six Group 1 wins when he led all the way on Estijaab in the 2018 Longines Golden Slipper. Riding more than 100 NSW winners in each of the last four seasons, he has also received acclaim by taking up short stints in Japan on top of his Sydney Jockeys Premiership in 2017/18.

TOMMY BERRY

Tommy Berry has been one of the elite jockeys in Sydney for the best part of a decade. Not only has he won 19 Group 1s in Australia but his talents have seen him also salute in feature races in Hong Kong and Singapore. Best known for his association with the champion grey sprinter Chautauqua and his cyclonic finish, Berry has won races from Golden Slippers to Sydney Cups and many in between.

HUGH BOWMAN

Emanating from a little town called Dunedoo, Hugh Bowman has become one of world racing's most recognised and successful jockeys. For all of his wins and his Group 1 tally nearing a hundred, he will forever be linked with the incomparable Winx. Their association saw Winx follow every one of Bowman's moves, including in 25 Group 1 victories. Bowman has received acclaim for his elite riding in distance races with many Derbys and Oaks – and a Japan Cup – on his record.

TIM CLARK

Tim Clark began his apprenticeship with Peter Clancy in Leeton in Southern NSW before moving to Sydney, where he would go on to win the 2005/06 apprentices title. It was not long after that he began a relationship with the fantastic mare Hot Danish. Clark won 14 races on the popular mare, including an All Aged Stakes at Royal Randwick, firmly establishing himself as one of Sydney's best jockeys. Clark has ridden with great accomplishment in Hong Kong.

DAMIAN LANE

Growing up in Western Australia, Damian Lane is among a long history of WA riders furthering their careers in Australia's Eastern states. His first major result came with the win of Trust In A Gust in the Sir Rupert Clarke Stakes in 2014, but his biggest domestic feat came on Kiamichi for Godolphin in the 2019 Longines Golden Slipper. Lane would gain international recognition with a Japanese contract and several major race victories.

JAMES McDONALD

As a champion apprentice in New Zealand before twice winning the Sydney Jockeys Premiership, McDonald bounced back from an 18-month suspension to again win the Sydney title in 2018/19. His 104 wins saw him become the first rider to break the century since Darren Beadman's extraordinary number of 164 over a decade before. Recognised as perhaps Sydney's best, McDonald's many achievements including riding (It's A) Dundee when he won Sydney's three-year-old Triple Crown.

KERRIN McEVOY

At the age of 20, Kerrin McEvoy was thrust onto the national stage winning the Melbourne Cup in 2000 on Brew. Only two years later, the kid from Streaky Bay would head to Europe and become Frankie Dettori's understudy for the Godolphin empire. His subsequent freelance career whilst based in Sydney has seen him further prosper winning two more Melbourne Cups, a Golden Slipper on Sepoy, and the first two runnings of the TAB Everest at Royal Randwick on Redzel.

DAMIEN OLIVER

The move from Perth to Melbourne in the late 1980s saw Damien Oliver quickly become one of the best riders in the land. Oliver is one of a select few to have won the 'grand slam' of Australian racing: the Melbourne Cup, Caulfield Cup, Cox Plate and Golden Slipper. His most famous Melbourne Cup was on Media Puzzle for Irish legend Dermot Weld, less than a week after his brother Jason died in a race fall in Western Australia. He is chasing George Moore's record for G1s in Australia.

WILLIAM PIKE

Another great WA rider, William Pike is known as the punter's friend and his 2018/19 Australian National Riding Record is testament to that. His 234 winners was a remarkable achievement. Sydney could well see the leading Perth rider during the Spring should he maintain his connection with outstanding mare Arcadia Queen after she was slotted into the Everest and is also eligible to run in the inaugural $7.5million Golden Eagle at Rosehill Gardens.

KEY TRAINERS

JAMES CUMMINGS

Leading the huge operation that is Godolphin has not fazed James Cummings since he took over the "Blue Army" in 2017, nor has being the grandson of the legendary Bart Cummings stopped him creating his own history. He trained in his own right with Prized Icon his first major in 2016 in the Victoria Derby. The 2018/19 season saw James create a national record for blacktype winners which included his first win in the 'big ones' as flying filly Kiamichi led from the jump in the 2019 Longines Golden Slipper at Rosehill Gardens.

MICHAEL, WAYNE & JOHN HAWKES

After a stellar career and a nine-time premiership trainer for Crown Lodge, John Hawkes joined with sons Michael and Wayne in a family partnership in 2008. The success has not stopped, including, a Longines Golden Slipper with filly Mossfun. Amongst some remarkable victories has been the grey flash Chautauqua, with his but his extraordinary finishes to win three straight TJ Smiths at Royal Randwick.

DAVID & BEN HAYES & TOM DABERNIG

Since the days of his celebrated father Colin, before going alone in 1990, David Hayes had immediate big race results, including champion Better Loosen Up winning a momentous Japan Cup. Following a prosperous time in Hong Kong, in recent years he has joined forces back in Australia, firstly with his nephew Tom Dabernig and then with his son Ben.

ANTHONY FREEDMAN

The Freedman name has been near the top of the tree for 30 years. When brothers Lee, Richard and Michael took on various interstate and international ventures, Anthony remained a constant in Australia. Now he trains in his own name, but the flagbearer is 7YO Santa Ana Lane, who has five Group 1 races on his CV, and is a leading contender for this year's TAB Everest.

KRIS LEES

Kris Lees worked for a long time with his late father Max, a legendary trainer in the Newcastle area, before securing his own licence in 2003. He trained County Tyrone to win a Metropolitan and Sydney Cup but believes his best horse was the filly Samantha Miss who took the Princess Series in the Sydney spring. He has a special affinity with fillies and mares, including with Lucia Valentina who won the $4million Longines Queen Elizabeth Stakes at Royal Randwick in 2016.

TONY McEVOY

The McEvoy yard had its best year in racing since Tony branched out by himself after many years with the Hayes family at the famous Lindsay Park in South Australia. His best horse last year was the top filly Sunlight who won Coolmore Stud Stakes against her own age bracket and then stepped up in the autumn to beat older horses in the Newmarket Handicap and the William Reid at WFA. She is TAB Everest bound. As well as Sunlight, McEvoy trained Oohood, Manuel and Despatch to win at the top level.

PETER & PAUL SNOWDEN

For much of his foundational time in racing, Scone's Peter Snowden worked with the best around. His time with John Hawkes at Crown Lodge led to being appointed the Ingham's, then Darley's number one man – with many becoming influential stallions. Peter would ultimately link with son Paul in their own venture. A Longines Golden Slipper with Capitalist was an early highlight. But they will always be known as the trainers of Redzel – winner of the first two renewals of The Everest.

CHRIS WALLER

For as long as Chris Waller puts a lead on a racehorse, he will be perpetually known as the man who trained Winx. Her career ended with 33 straight and 25 Group 1s and yet the fact her last in the 2019 Queen Elizabeth Stakes was also his 100th Group 1 was ultimately perfect. His rise from being a foreman with top kiwi mentor Paddy Busuttin to winning the last nine Sydney Trainers titles has been incredible. Waller also broke the all-time record for most Group 1s in a season with 18 last season.

GAI WATERHOUSE & ADRIAN BOTT

For many years Gai Waterhouse was at the side of her genius father Tommy (TJ) Smith during his amazing run of 33 straight Sydney Trainers Premierships (34 in total). Gai was eventually granted her own licence in 1992 and has not looked back since. Her own Group 1 tally is equally as significant. So many of them have come at her much loved Royal Randwick but the Golden Slipper is a personal triumph as she sits equal with TJ at six winners. From the 2016/17 season she united with Adrian Bott at Tulloch Lodge.
